Personal statement: With an academic background in Psychology, I have been working in veterinary practice since 2000 and providing pet dog behaviour consultations on a professional basis since 2004 across London and the Home Counties. With a particular interest in puppy development, socialisation, aggression and phobias, I provide behavioural talks to vet practice clients, run puppy pre-vaccination sessions, provide bespoke behaviour modification programs and am passionate about helping dogs and their owners within the community.
