Personal statement: I have been dog training as a hobby for over 30 years and since 2009 I have run Wheelgates Dog Training, a friendly dog training business catering for the needs of companion dog owners. I am in my fifth year working towards Kennel Club Accreditation Scheme for Instructors in Dog Training and Canine Behaviour. I am the founder Chairman of the British Carriage Dog Society and I run monthly classes for Dalmatians, which include instinct tests with horse and carriage. I regularly attend seminars and courses in order to keep up to date with new innovations in dog training and behaviour. I also attend training with my own dog, in particular with John Rogerson and Pam Mackinnon and am particularly interested in nose work. I am a member of Society for Companion Animal Studies and am very interested in pets as therapy, my own dog being a registered PAT dog.
